

Paceworking Leadership & Business Conference, 14 May 2010 At Hamilton House Hall, Mabledon Place WC1H 9BN, London (Near Euston/Kings Cross stations and the British Library), 3pm – 8pm

Theme: Leadership & Business - Making a difference in 2010 and beyond

The Paceworking Conference on 14 May 2010, will bring together experts, business leaders, professionals and representatives from prominent organisations based in the UK and internationally. Delegates will obtain information on the topics discussed, acquire business tips, obtain conference literature and take part in an interactive Q & A session.

For Telephone and on-line bookings click on the link below:

<http://www.clubtickets.com/gb/2010-05/14/paceworking-leadership-business-conference>

Cost: £30 for 1 delegate or £50 for 2 delegates

Payments in advance: Event booking Telephone Hotline - 0207 0332513

Event information/ Sponsorship /Exhibitors /Volunteers - 07974 435 727

Cheques payable to 'Paceworking' (before 8 May 2010) – PO Box 52809 London SW11 2YS

Website: www.paceworkingconsultancy.co.uk

Panel of speakers

Mrs Joke Adefulire - Hon Commissioner for Women Affairs, Lagos State, Nigeria – The role of women in leadership and economic development.

Ms Debbie Ariyo - Founder of AFRUCA, a UK-based Charity, Africans Unite against Child Abuse promoting the rights and welfare of African children. – The challenges of running a non-governmental organisation.

Mrs Bimpe Nkontchou - A Solicitor and senior partner at Addie & Co, a leading London Law firm specialising in corporate and commercial law. Expanding your business internationally: A legal perspective.

Anber Raz - An advocate of women's rights - Equality Now, an International Human Rights Organisation based in London. - Women's rights: Overcoming the barriers.

Councillor Elisabeth Tinuke Davies - A Councillor, London Borough of Waltham Forest, President of Nigerian Social Workers & Chair of Nigerian Association of Councillors - Women in leadership: A Political perspective

Ms Abidemi Sanusi - A Writer & former Human rights worker, shortlisted for the 2010 Commonwealth writers' prize - Writing for change, a life in fiction.

Rowena Lewis - Head of Development & Fundraising, Fawcett Society, London - Bridging the Gap: Equality rights.

Lindsey Nefesh-Clarke - Founder of the Women's Worldwide Web, empowering women in business & Board Director of Enfant D'Asie, France. - The female factor: Women's empowerment and entrepreneurship in 2010 and beyond.

Ms Sola Salako - A Nigerian TV presenter, Journalist & Consumer rights advocate; CEO Purples Consult Ltd. – Consumer focus as a key to brand success.

Supporting Organisations include:

OHTV, The Trumpet Newspaper, BBC Focus on Africa, The Enterprise Exhibition, Arik Air, the Lagos State Ministry of Women Affairs and Poverty Alleviation, Afruca, Reconnect Africa, the Women's Worldwide Web, Addie & Co, British Nigeria Law Forum, Financial Nigeria, Fawcett Society and Equality Now.